1. For thus saith the Lord of Hosts, I love you and I appreciate you reading My words. I appreciate you going through Jeremiah. I appreciate you valuing My words, My words to My prophets, My words through My prophets, My words to My kings and queens of My Kingdom, those who will rise up early and listen to Me, wait before Me, and not be proud but meek—who will listen and speak not to control Me, speak not to control My words, to control My flow, the stream of My flow, My fountain to them; but speak to Me in reverence and fear, knowing that I am God Most High. I am King, the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords, the ruler of all—well stated you have.

2. I am Me and I am coming in glory and I am coming in fear and fear upon the faces of men that know Me not will glow, their teeth on edge, their hair upright—intensity of fear never known, nor has it entered their mind that they can fear so greatly as when they stand before Me and realize what they could have had, what they could have walked in, what they could have enjoyed, what I offered, how I came to them day after day, offering them Me, offering them My words, the words of My prophet, the words of My people, the words of My people who speak My words.

3. I come and I call and I confirm and I affirm that I am defiantly standing against those that defiantly stand against Me and I am rock, I am The Rock, and there is none that stand before Me, there is none that can stand before My love, there is none that can stand before My power. All authority is given to Me in heaven and earth and I am, I am the Great I Am, I am the only I Am.

4. I am I Am and I am coming and I am drawing close My people, my remnant who now increases, who comes and calls on My name, falls on their face before Me day after day, weeping for nations, weeping for people beside them—in their household even, that know Me not, reject the words of My love and the love of My words, the love of My words revealed, given, preserved, the love of My words coming forth now, today through My mighty, My meekness'd, My drink-offering'd ones who before Me listen, write and speak My words—the ones coming to them day after day.

5. I arise and I am arising those who will arise. I am arising those who will listen to Me and be afraid of Me not, worship Me afar off not, but have come into My presence in candor, in crimson, so that I may clean and that I may give Myself.

6. A ransom for many I was, a ransom for many I am, ransomed not for those who reject Me, who claim they know Me and know Me not, who speak against Me in My ways and My words. Those who know Me not will be consumed and their hair will glow and be no more. I come and I call and I confirm that I am sweeping this nation, I am sweeping My earth with the power of My glory, calling My people to Me—a remnant who will walk in power and glow in My glory, meekness'd ones who know what love is, who know love stems from Me. I am love. Love is Me. I am My water, My fountain of grace and mercy, and My mercy, My mercy endures forever. But judgment comes, judgment begins at the house of the Lord and judgment flows from My throne to all My people.

7. And I am coming and I am judging the intents of the heart, the motives, the words, the words of your mouth, the words I have placed before you day after day as I came and I called you and I gave you My words and you were afraid, you were afraid, you hid them in the ground, you hid them, you hid them, you wouldn't speak them, you wouldn't speak out—you were too timid and shy.

8. Afraid and fearful you took My words and you hid them, you wouldn't speak them even to your spouse, your family. You wouldn't speak, you wouldn't stand up and say these are the words of God, these are the words of the Lord that He has given me. You were afraid to fail so you couldn't grow. You took the words and you hid them, you hid them.

9. So many of you have taken My words, taken My words, taken My thoughts, My ideas, My creativity, My greatness, and stuffed it and stashed it and hid it, and I deplore your state now, your state of mind, your state of depression—so many of you thinking you are so right, so bright, so brilliant, and yet in your heart you are poor and naked and demised, despising My words.

10. Listen to Me, listen to Me while there is light, listen to Me while there is day, for the night cometh when no man will work. You know that, you know that.

11. Many of you know My scriptures well who have despised My words, many of you have spoken and spoken before people and lifted up My name and done miracles and yet cast My words to the wind, valued them not—did not listen to Me when I came and I called. Correct me, you wouldn't let Me. You wouldn't let Me correct you. You wouldn't let Me correct you. You wouldn't let Me correct you. You wouldn't let Me speak My own judgment to you through you. Fear, fear, fear of man, fear of failure.

12. Do not hide My words. Do not hide what I am doing in the earth today. Do not hide the sweep of My hand. Hear Me and hear Me well, I am coming and I am calling and I am confirming, I am affirming and I am acclaiming those with great joy and laughter—those who will acclaim Me and My words and let Me speak and My Covenant reveal; My Covenant coming forth—joy and laughter, power and authority. And there is nothing, there is no one that will stop Me, no force, all forces, any forces, combined forces, can withstand My force, My force of My love, the words of My mouth.

13. I am integrity. I obey My word for I am My word and My word comes forth and integrity of My word comes forth and integrity of My words come forth, integrity of heart, integrity of matter, integrity of matter transcended.

14. Now listen and fool yourselves not, deceive yourselves not about what I am doing and the new things I am doing and the words that I have revealed in My prophet, My son, My Ted. Now listen to Me and My words, My words through him, My words through My prophets many, one Ted not—I am speaking, I am speaking through the meekness'd drink-offering'd, crucified ones who have laid before Me and died, and I am picking them up.

15. And I am picking you up if you will let Me. I am picking you up if you will let Me, if you will relent. If you will relinquish your fear of men, I will pick you up and I will arise you this day. I will speak to you. I will speak through you. I will come and candor your eyes. I will candor your mouth and I will make you not afraid of people and not afraid of standing up and arising; speaking My words and stating that they are My words and stating that I am and that I am I Am-ing My people.

16. You who are fearful, so fearful, decisions make today who you will fear--Me or man, Me or mammon, the one and only true God or the counterfeit deceiver, deceiving so many even in My name. Now arise and hesitate not to arise, arise, I say arise this day, arise. Arise and fall on your face before Me and let Me clean you, cleanse you, and make you noble for My purposes—arise you and give you the desires of your heart that are placed there by Me—your mission/My mission.

17. The cup before you; will you drink My cup, My cup, My cup that I placed in you before you were born, before you were formed, before you were conceived, before the foundation of the earth? Will you drink your cup? I drank My cup, I drank My cup, will you drink your cup? Or will you shame, will you shame those because you are ashamed? Will you shame? Will you shame others trying to not be ashamed?

18. Will you come before Me in cleanliness and holiness and purity of heart, purity of motive or will you remain self-secure, self-centered, self-focused, self-sufficient, yet so often speaking My name saying and saying prayers and thinking you are holiness, thinking you are walking in holiness and righteousness in your fear of man, in your fear of lack, in your fear of uncertainty?

19. I call and I come before you this day and I move in power, I move in the sweep of My hand and you will see Me, you will see Me in headlines, you will see Me, no one will miss what I am doing. No one, no one will miss what I am doing. I am My New Covenant.

20. Will you study Hebrews? Will you study My word? Will you read My prophets? Will you listen to what I am saying? Will you come before Me this day and repent? Will you come before Me and relent and relinquish, please—the mighty dishonors—what you have done, done in My name, done to other people, done to poor people, people you have taken advantage of.

21. You who think you are mighty, you who think you are secure, read My words, read My lips, look into My eyes; feel My power, feel My displeasure at the way you have disproportionately catered to the rich and those that can help you, that can put you in positions that you think are of status. I resent it. I resent those actions, they resemble only the deceiver.

22. Now I come and I call. I came before My Father and I humbled Myself, I humbled Myself even to death and you must as well—the death of self. Will you come into

Me and take My hand and let Me take your hand and become Me?

Become Me. Am I not speaking about Me? Am I not speaking about I Am-ing My body every day, every day? Am I alone? No! I am Me and we are one. Will you become one with Me? Will you realize the limitations of your thinking past?

23. This is a new day, a new day. Set aside the paradigms of the past and the thinking so constrained, so constrained, so religious, so rules-laden, so bound with chains. I am freedom and this is My proclamation of liberty, this is My proclamation of liberty, My proclamation of fear for those of you who do not heed My warning, My invitation to My throne, the invitation to My quarters, the invitation to drink the cup, the cup of suffering so that you can drink the cup of resurrection with Me at My table—Me, King of Salem, King of Peace. I am the King of Salem, the King of Peace, and there is none other beside Me. Hear Me and hear Me well and listen to what I am revealing. I am revealing insights into My words that people have yearned for, for centuries. Will you speak them? Will you speak them? Will you speak them or will you be afraid? Will you be a mighty mouse, a Mickey Mouse, a Minnie Mouse, a little pipsqueak afraid of your own shadow, or will you stand up and arise and not be afraid to fail? Will you say I believe this is what God is saying to Me? Will you arise? Will you arise? Will you arise into the priesthood, the priesthood which I have given you, the prophetic which I have placed upon you, in you, all, everyone of you. You sensitive ones, who so hard are, I come before you. I heal you. I so much want to heal you. I so much want to arise you, confidence you, foundation you, bring you into leadership and significance you. Oh, hear My heart, oh hear My plea, hear My cry this day. I am calling. Now come to Me, come to Me. Radios, televisions, distracters, music—silence. Come before Me and let Me speak. Come before Me and let Me speak. Come before Me and let Me speak. Let Me speak, I am speaking, I am the living, speaking Christ. I am the one and only true God. I am the Most High, omnipotent, omniscient, holy one, only holy one, the one and only holy one. Will you come before Me? Will you come before Me holy one and be holy in My holiness alone? Or will you resist? The choice is before you this day. I come and I call. I come and I call. I come and I call—My body, My bread, My blood is before you this day. Will you drink My cup? Will you drink your cup? Let us be one together. Let Me arise you in the glorification of My glory and power, might, wisdom, knowledge and understanding, and revelation this day. Please. I beg you.

Amen.
